

The Essentials of a Day-Pack

By Shikhar Sharma

What is a Day-Pack?

A day-pack is like your school backpack, except instead of school supplies you carry scout supplies. Your day-pack has all the important things you need for meetings, campouts, hikes, etc. So it's important to bring your day-pack to all the activities your troop does. Below are some recommended day-packs.

1st Image: G4Free Mountaineer 35L: $38.99 on Amazon

2nd Image: High Sierra Loop-Backpack: $36.41 on Amazon

3rd Image: Venture Pal Field Operation 40L: $26.99 on Amazon

4th Image: MAXTOP 30/40L: $19.99 - $39.99 on Amazon

*Prices correct as of 3/12/2022***

Flip Over for Information Regarding What Goes in a Day-Pack ➔

Continued

What Goes in a Day-Pack;

- Scout Book
- First Aid Kit
- Fire Starter that is safely stored!
- Pocket Knife
- Rope
- Anything that you may need for an upcoming meeting, such as requirements or merit badge homework
- Water
- Snacks that are optional for campouts but unnecessary for meetings
- Compass
- Notepad & Pen/Pencil
- A folder that is optional but recommended for organization
- Hand Warmers which are optional but recommended for cold weather activities
- Flashlight

Do you have a question?

If so, please do not hesitate to ask your questions to a fellow scout or leader. You can also email your leaders for help.